1. Dear Ted, dear Ted, dear Ted, I love you. Think it not strange that you receive some surprises regarding people who think you're off and withdraw their support. It's okay, you have broad shoulders. I gave them to you. I gave them to you. You are so sensitive, but not easily swayed or deterred. I'm okay and you're okay and we will walk through the piercing of this veil together.

2. The piercing of the veil, the piercing of the veil, the piercing of the veil that holds My precious ones so captive to traditional avenues of thought, causing them to wrestle so with the paradigm that I keep presenting to My followers who are readers and hearers of these words that I give you.

3. Ted, I will pierce the veil, the battle is Mine, not yours. No convincing do you need to do at all. You only write My words and walk with your hand in My hand, and place all the hands into Mine that you can.

4. So many are so stuck in the scripture that "I change not," that they cannot see how much I change in scripture, and how much I change My ways and methods throughout the years. So many want chapter and verse from you so they can go to formula and rules to validate you, rather than coming to Me to validate you, to validate Me, to validate Me in what I am doing through you.

5. I chose you Ted, I chose you, I chose you, because I knew you had guts, and I still know you have guts, you have guts for Me. You have a tenacity to see Me through the piercing of My veil in Mine that will not fail Me.

6. The religious always want to containerize and authenticate, and create new—they seldom do, but I am changing that. I am changing the paradigms that hold My people captive to religious thought and I'm breaking them free, into a relationship with Me, at My knee, at My table, with My bread and wine, My words, My revelation directly into them, resulting in revelation-creating creations that come out of My heart and My hands into the heart of My people and out through their hands.

7. Provision comes Ted, promotion comes, invitations come, expansion comes, freedomization continues, and Ted, globalization will galvanize those who will say, can this be, can this be, can this be the Ted I knew? The globalization that I have for you and those with you, and those in networks with you, will create newness of new that will refresh and revitalize and once again bring emotion to My emotionless who seek Me afar off, protective of their innermost chambers, because of their protectiveness of their outermost chambers.

8. Thank you for your tenacity in Me. I have tested you thoroughly and know the strength you have. You have shown yourself to Me repeatedly and I know you deeply. That's why Ted, I call your name so often, so often, because you know Me deeply. Few comprehend our relationship together. Few Ted, few, so few, but My Ted, that is your assignment, this is your future, and I've laid it out before you in so many crystal clear statements that only the muddled cannot master.

9. Take Me to Mine and the relationship we have and share every detail about us and what you did to get where you are. Withhold nothing. Resist every thought any person gives you that you should refrain from sharing intimately about our intimacy. This Ted, is exactly what I want you to do.

10. You are walking forth, a forerunner, a forerunner about to run. Take heart, take courage, I have given you all you need and so very much more, so very much more, so very much more.

11. Enjoy this evening, laugh and frolic in your painting and enjoy what I have done for you and what comes your way. Oh so much fun walking in My over-abundance.

12. Pierce the veil every way you can, everywhere you go, using every tool I give you, and I give you them all, I withhold nothing, I withhold nothing, I withhold nothing from you Ted. Enjoy, laugh, frolic, and be Me to all who wonder who I really am and what I'm really like.

13. Expand their thinking of Me as a person with fingers and toes and emotions who deeply loves His creation.

And I thank you. I thank you. I thank you.
